

Community Art Center Foundation

DATE POSTED: 4/28/22

POSITION TITLE: Call for Local talent, Artists and Teaching Artists

As The Prizery continues to grow our programming and educational opportunities, we are looking for a variety of artists, performers, backstage/technical staff and teaching artists with the ability and desire to work with us as we strive to bring the arts to the entire community.

We are looking for painters, sculptors and other visual artists who are interested in teaching summer camps, fall or winter classes for any age group, or artists to be considered for a gallery exhibit in The Robert Cage Art Gallery, located at The Prizery.

We will be taking arts education programs into the schools, providing activities for pre-school, after-school and summer programs, as well as having group classes in visual and performing arts for all ages, and private voice, dance, acting or art lessons in the evenings at The Prizery.

Also, Summer Stock Theatre is BACK from June 6-August 14. If you would like to be considered for ensemble roles, backstage crew, stage management, costuming or other production work opportunities, please email ED@prizery.com

If you would be interested in any of these visual or performing arts opportunities, or if you have a class you are interested in offering at The Prizery, please send your resume, programs you are interested in, general availability, and examples of your work in the form of photos, videos or other formats. Submit all information and work samples to ED@prizery.com

All employees of The Prizery must be fully vaccinated against Covid 19.
Resumes and cover letters are due by May 13.
